Poll Tax Payments Break
All Records—The Polls
by Precincts.

Politics is quiet at the present time and there is very little chance of a sudden uprising in the political field. However, both F. J. Hall and W. D. Howe declare that they are going to stay in the race to a finish. The ring is backing P. J. Edwards and Joe Neal against them.

The poll tax paying time is over and the records of the county collector show that 5942 persons may vote in the county at the coming primaries next July. Of these 4472 are in the city, and nearly 65 percent of them are Mexicans. The summary of the different precincts follows:

Precinct	Polls	Exemptions
Precinct No. 1—352	54	49
Precinct No. 2—375	59	52

EL PASO COUNTY HAS
$165,430.30 IN BANK

Port Hancock Interurban Company Asks for Year's Extension On Its Franchise.

When the county commissioners counted the money today they found $165,430.30 in the various funds.

Application was made by the El Paso Port Hancock Interurban for a year's extension on its franchise. Action was deferred until next week.

The Clint school district has voted $3500 for a school. There were 27 votes in favor of the bonds and none opposed.

SMUGGLED RACE HORSE SEIZED
J. Carter Under Arrest at Dallas—Horse Was at Juarez Track.

"Dave Montgomery," a race horse exported to the Juarez track on Nov. 19, was smuggled back into the United States, according to customs officials, and was seized at Dallas, Texas. J. Carter is now under arrest there on the charge of smuggling.

The race horse, according to records of the customs service here, was owned by R. Jarrett. The horse was ridden across the border into El Paso, they say, and shipment was made from here. The horse has been taken to San Antonio and will be sold in that city.

URGES DANCE AS GRACE PRODUCER FOR WOMEN.

Show Girl Declares Fancy Steps Best of Exercise—Recommends It to All Women.

Virginia Forbes, one of the show girls in "The Red Mill," advises all women who wish to be graceful to take lessons in fancy or clog dancing. Miss Forbes points out that it is dancing, practiced by women in musical shows, that makes them so graceful when not on the stage.

"Any woman would be benefited more by indulging in fancy dancing and fancy stepping than in playing bridge whilst at afternoon," said Miss Forbes.

"Systematic dancing in moderation is one of the best of exercises. Indeed some physicians declare that next to horseback riding it is the most beneficial of all. As soon as the women of the present day, who now devote so much of their time to what, or to reading trashy fiction, learn the real value of dancing, I believe dancing clubs will be established to take the place of euchre parties."

RAILROAD MEN TO HEAR
LECTURE BY DR. DOUGLAS.
Several railway men in the offices of the local railroads are planning to go to Douglas, Thursday, to attend the lecture of Dr. James Douglas on the subject of transcontinental railroads, which is to be illustrated with stereoscopic views. Much significance is attached to this lecture, owing to the rumors rampant in Douglas that the city is to be placed on a transcontinental line.

EL PASO MOURNS OVER THE FUNERAL
BIER OF COL. B. F. HAMMETT

City Grieves for a Friend and All Public Offices Are Closed in Honor of the Deceased.

Civic flags are at half mast, citizens hearts are bowed in grief for today is the funeral day of El Paso's friend and ex-mayor second—Benjamin F. Hammett.

By proclamation of the mayor business was suspended in public offices and many business houses were closed, as policemen and firemen escorted the long funeral cortege through the city streets. It was an hour of universal civic recognition.

Funeral services were conducted at Hotel D. R. Francis shortly after 3 o'clock. Rev. Caspar S. Wright spoke the simple Methodist rites, without eulogy.

The most prominent men of El Paso heard the words and bowed their heads in grief at the loss of the city builder, city friend.

At the grave in Concordia cemetery a delegation representing the fraternity of Elks conducted the ritual of their order, and the minister concluded with benedictions.

The body was lowered into the grave.

Two squads of police and a representation of the fire department escorted the funeral procession from the hotel residence of the family.

The pallbearers were: A. P. Coles, Felix Martinez, Charles Stevens, Horace Broadus, J. A. Escalada, H. L. Applegate, P. F. Edwards and J. H. Nations.

Mayor's Proclamation.
Mayor Sweeney yesterday issued the following proclamation:

"From our midst there has been removed, by death, a man of sterling quality, a loyal El Pasoan and a progressive citizen.

"On the evening of Thursday, February 17, 1910, in the city of Los Angeles, Cal., Col. B. F. Hammett passed away. To him we are deeply indebted for much of the civic progress we have enjoyed during the past ten years. At a personal sacrifice he became chief executive of this city in 1901, at a period in the history of El Paso, when we were sorely in need of an able, fearless and conscientious leader. How well he performed the arduous task assigned him is evidenced by our present standing as a progressive and prosperous city.

"In private and public life he honored us. In death, we who have been the recipients of his labors, should find this a fitting time to confer upon him the last testimonial of the high esteem in which he was held.

"Therefore, I, Joseph U. Sweeney, mayor of the city of El Paso, respectfully request the citizens of El Paso to refrain from pursuing their usual vocations during the time the funeral cortege passes through the streets of the city on Monday, February 21, at 3 o'clock p. m. At that time I request the merchants to close the doors of their business houses. I direct that all municipal affairs shall close at that hour; that the police and fire department shall form an escort of honor, and that flags on all municipal buildings shall be displayed at half mast.

"Witness my hand and official seal this 20th day of February A. D. 1910.

"Joseph U. Sweeney, Mayor."

All city and county offices closed today in honor of the ex-mayor and all public officials, including the county commissioners, attended the funeral. Flags on all city and county buildings and the chamber of commerce were at half mast.

Police and Fire Escorts.
The police escort for the funeral was composed of G. E. Fletcher, R. E. Parsons, C. H. Haynes, C. L. Tillman, J. P. Caplinger, W. N. Woods, E. E. Enlow, J. W. Stages.

The escort from the fire department was composed of J. T. Sullivan, J. Collins, H. Bargeham, G. Cook, W. Dupree, B. Le Gros.

Like Alderete, district clerk, said that he earned his first money while in the employ of the Campbell real estate company, of which B. F. Hammett was president, and when he closed his office from 2:30 to 4 o'clock today.

Negroes Grieve.
From the negroes of El Paso comes glowing tribute to the ex-mayor. The pastors and congregations of the African Methodist and Baptist churches of the city have issued resolutions reciting that "As mayor of the city, as a citizen and as a Christian, he has been our friend and benefactor," and extending condolences to the family.

MRS. E. G. COLLINS.
Mrs. E. G. Collins, of Morton, Miss., who had resided in El Paso a short time died at her home, 711 San Diego street, Highland Park, late Saturday evening. The remains were shipped to her home in Mississippi Sunday.

CLIFFORD LOWRY.
Clifford Lowry, 41 years old, a liquor gager in the employ of the government, died Sunday at a local hospital. He had been in El Paso but five days, having come here from Peoria, Ill., for the benefit of his health. After coming here he resided at 405 Prospect avenue until Sunday when he was removed to the hospital where he died an hour after his arrival.

MRS. MARTHA DE GUINE.
Mrs. Martha de Guine, mother of Mrs. Edward Pennebaker, died at the Pennebaker residence, 312 North Ochoa street, Sunday evening, at the age of 62 years. The funeral will be held Tuesday afternoon from the church of the Immaculate Conception. Rev. Francis Roy officiating.

ing. The interment will be in Evergreen cemetery. Nagley and Kaster were the funeral directors.

MRS. DAISY SINGER.
Mrs. Daisy Singer, wife of Harry Singer, died at the Singer home, 617 Gold street, Highland Park, Sunday. The deceased was 34 years old. The funeral services, which will be in charge of Nagley & Kaster, will be held Tuesday, 10 a. m. Rev. W. R. Merrill will officiate.

INFANT TOWNSEND.
James Edward, Jr., the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Townsend, died Sunday night at the family residence, 916 North Stanton street. The funeral was held this afternoon at 2:30 p. m. from the Immaculate Conception church in charge of Nagley and Kaster, and the interment was in Concordia cemetery.

WOULD REGULATE EMPLOYMENT MEN
Labor Commissioner Will Seek to Prevent Practice of Fraud.

Austin, Tex., Feb. 21.—Labor commissioner Myers today gave it out that he will request the next legislature to enact a law regulating the employment agencies with a view to preventing them from deceiving and defrauding ignorant foreigners.

In discussing such practices Myers cited a case where men were put on the Bartlett & Florence railroad with a promise of $2.50 daily, but received only half that amount.

WOMAN TEARS REFUSES BEDDING FROM BODY—REFUSES BEDDING
In one of the private cells of the city jail there is a woman who is docketed under the name of D. Macias, charged with insanity. She was taken to the jail Sunday by her son, who said that she had been ranting. After being placed in the cell she refused to have any bedding and tore her own clothes from her body, all the time yelling in a loud voice.

Complaint has been filed in the county court and she will be transferred to the county jail.

TO EXTEND RAILROAD.
Austin, Tex., Feb. 21.—The Enid, Oklahoma & Western railroad today filed a charter amendment for 55 additional miles of track from Oklahoma to the east line of Lipscomb county. The original survey calls for a line from Dabhart to Ochiltree.

TO LAY CORNERSTONE.
Austin, Tex., Feb. 21.—Governor Campbell today went to Huntsville, where they will lay the cornerstone of the new building of the Sam Houston normal.

CITY GENERALLY TO TAKE A HOLIDAY TUESDAY.
Tuesday being Washington's birthday and aviation day combined, the G. H. & S. A. freight warehouse and offices will close at noon, to permit the clerks to see the bird man fly.

All public offices and banks will close, and also many stores.

Because of the aviation meeting Tuesday, the High School Military institute basketball game, which was to have been played Tuesday afternoon, has been postponed until Tuesday evening.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.
The debate on the trusts at the Y. M. C. A. resulted in a victory for the anti-trust advocates at the Forum Saturday evening, the decision going to the negative by a vote of two to three. C. L. Simons and W. R. May spoke for the affirmative side of the question and R. F. Davis and Charles Owen for the winning side. P. H. Blighon also spoke on the subject in an extemporaneous way after the debate closed.

Views taken in Buano Tumbo land by bishop Hartzell were shown at the men's address of the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon.

CONDEMNATION HEARING.
The hearing of evidence in the Elephant Butte condemnation proceedings is in progress at Socorro, N. M., before a special commission which was appointed to by the United States district court at Socorro to hear the evidence in the condemnation proceedings.
